HERO LORE & BACKSTORY

Strategic Business Development leader with 13+ years driving revenue growth, enterprise partnerships, and international expansion across AdTech, DSP/SSP, and mobile gaming ecosystems. Co-founding team member and VP International Expansion at Personaly, scaling operations into 8+ global markets and helping build $30M in annual revenue while running enterprise gaming accounts across EMEA, APAC, and the US, including Bandai Namco, SEGA, NEXON, Netmarble, Playtika, Plarium, and King. Founded and led Definitio, a proprietary DSP unit, and later built Tekma's data partnerships pipeline, giving direct experience on both sides of the AdTech value chain. A player-coach by nature, equally comfortable closing enterprise deals personally and coaching a commercial team to do the same.
